SWEEPING IN BOTH DIRECTIONS OF U.S. HIGHWAY 101 IN SAN JUAN BAUTISTA AREA OUTSIDE OF HOLLISTER STARTS MONDAY, JULY 30

SAN BENITO COUNTY – The Hollister Maintenance crews will be sweeping along both directions of U.S. Highway 101 from the Monterey County line to the Santa Clara County line, in the area of San Juan Bautista outside of Hollister for four days starting Monday, July 30, Caltrans officials have announced. Details are as follows:

Monday, July 30:

- Sweeping the northbound median.

Tuesday, July 31:

- Sweeping the southbound median.

Wednesday, Aug. 1:

- No sweeping.

Thursday, Aug. 2:

- Sweeping on the northbound shoulders and ramps.

Friday, Aug. 3:

- Sweeping on the southbound shoulders and ramps.

Roadwork hours are from 9 am to 3:00 pm each day. Motorists can expect delays of up to 15 minutes. Electronic message boards will be placed to inform motorists of roadwork. The CHP will assist with traffic control. Roadwork is expected to be completed by Friday, August 3 and is necessary for the safety of the traveling public.

Caltrans reminds motorists to move over and slow down when driving through highway construction zones.
